Why do Genealogy

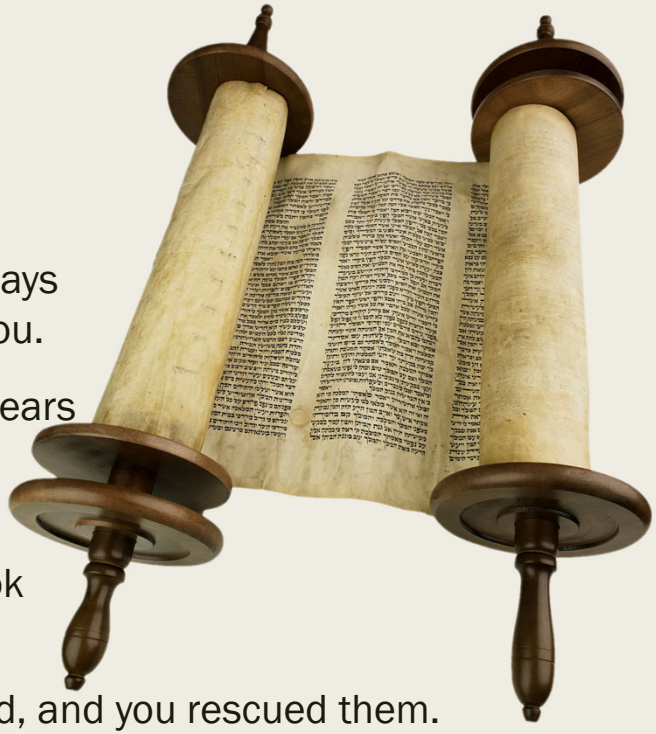

- Genealogy is a curiosity for most, a hobby for many and an obsession for some.

- At its root, genealogy satisfies basic human curiosity. These needs can be summed up in three fundamental questions:
  - The Past – Where do I come from?
  - The Present – Why am I here?
  - The Future – What is going to happen to me?

- Interestingly enough, the three fundamental questions that underpin genealogy are also the three questions that form the basis of all the major religions of the world.

Jewish Teachings:

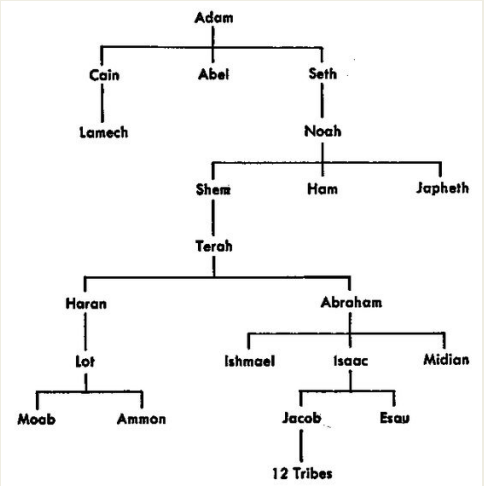

- Exodus 20:12 – Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be prolonged in the land which the LORD your God gives you.
- Deuteronomy 32:7 – Remember the days of old; consider the years long past. Ask your father, and he will tell you, your elders, and they will inform you.
- Isaiah 51:1-2 – It is worthy of all who seek righteousness to look to the rock from which they were hewn.
- Psalm 22:4-5 – In you our ancestors put their trust; they trusted, and you rescued them.
- Pesach Haggadah – In each generation man must regard himself as if he himself came out of Egypt, as it is said, and you should relate it to your son on that day.
- Talmud Avot 3:1 – Know from whence you came, and where you are going, and to whom you will have to give account in the future.

"The deeds of our ancestors foretell the experiences of their decedents." – Rabbinical Saying

Jewish Teachings:

Tanakh is a Genealogy of the Jewish People …

- Genealogies in Genesis: (4:17-23 Cain); (5 Noah); (10:1-36 Table of Nations); (11:10-26 Shem-Abram); (22:20-24 Nahor); (25:1-5 Qeturah); (25:12-18 Ishmael); (36 Line of Esau); (37 Line of Jacob) (46:8-27 Israel)
- Genealogy of King David in Torah (Gen 38 Judah, his sons & Tamara)
- Other Genealogies: (Deuteronomy 23:3-4 Ammonite & Moabite); (Samuel-1 1:2); (Ezra 7:1-5); (Esther 2:5); (Chronicles-1 1-9;14); and more!

An awareness of personal family history establishes a link in the chain of Jewish existence.[4]

Personally, why do Family Genealogy

- As a Mitzvah for Parents, Siblings, Children, and Cousins
- To document Family Histories
- It's rewarding, meaningful, exciting, challenging, … & make connections

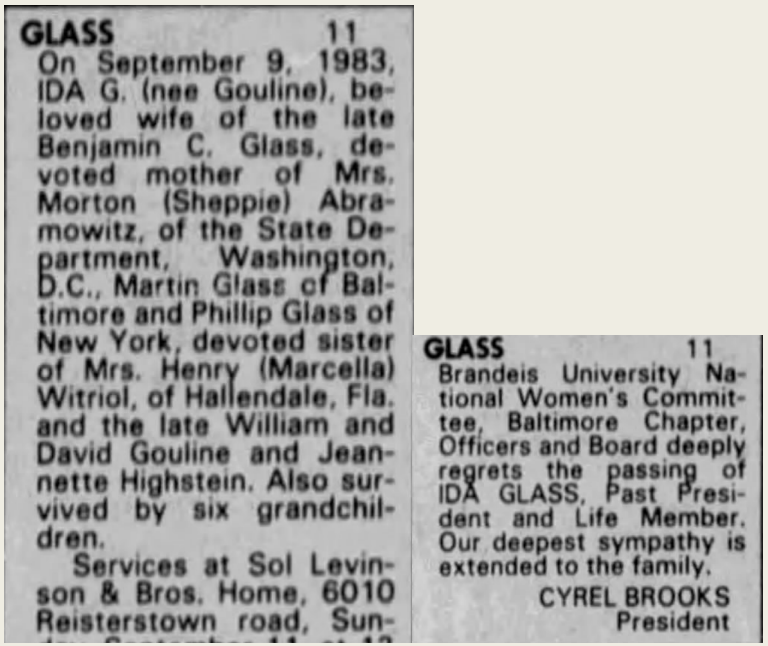

Mrs. Highstein, Dentist's Widow

Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 23 (Special)—Mrs. Jeanne B. Highstein, the widow of a Baltimore dentist, died yesterday at North Miami Beach General Hospital after a short illness. She was 64.

Mrs. Highstein was a native of Baltimore. The former Jeanne Gouline, she was graduated from Western High School and attended the University of Maryland. She married Dr. Charles H. Highstein in 1925.

Mrs. Highstein was active in Jewish charities in Baltimore for many years. During World War II, she worked for the Red Cross and Civil Defense.

She was a past president of the Beth Yehuda Sisterhod, a board member of the Jewish Convalescent and Nursing Home, a charter member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Alpha Omega Fraternity, a life member of Hadassah, and a member of the Brandeis University National Committee.

GLASS 11

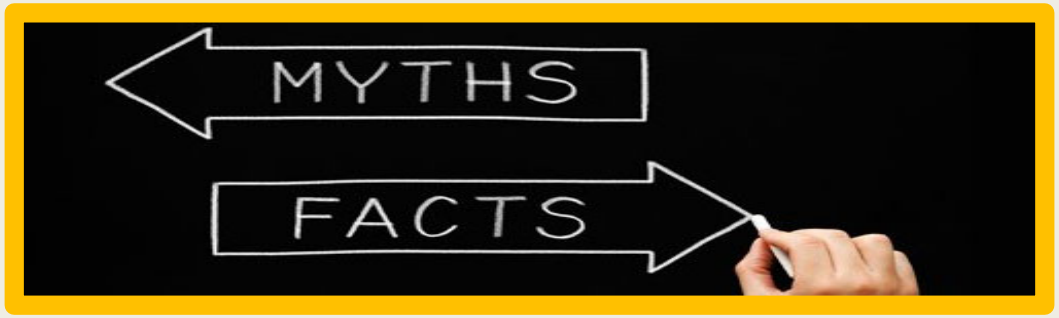

On September 9, 1983, IDA G. (nee Gouline), beloved wife of the late Benjamin C. Glass, devoted mother of Mrs. Morton (Sheppie) Abramowitz, of the State Department, Washington, D.C., Martin Glass of Baltimore and Phillip Glass of New York, devoted sister of Mrs. Henry (Marcella) Witriol, of Hallendale, Fla. and the late William and David Gouline and Jeannette Highstein. Also survived by six grandchildren.

Services at Sol Levinson & Bros. Home, 6010 Reisterstown road, Sun-

GLASS 11

Brandeis University National Women's Committee, Baltimore Chapter, Officers and Board deeply regrets the passing of IDA GLASS, Past President and Life Member. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the family.

CYREL BROOKS
President

Many Jews believe they cannot trace their family roots because:

- My family name was changed (at Ellis Island)
- No one in my family knows about the past
- No one is left alive to tell me about my family's past
- All the records were destroyed in the Holocaust
- My town was wiped off the face of the map

Michael's Genealogy Story

- How I got Started …
- My wife, Phyllis' desire to validate her tree through DAR
- Found research information by Googling Highstein and South Africa?
- http://www.eilatgordinlevitan.com/vashki/vashki.html
- Filled out my Maternal Grandfather to another Generation

Start with What You Know (or at least what you've been told)

- What were your family names?
- Where did your ancestors come from?
- When did they come to America? Where did they live in America?
- What did they do for a living?
- What language(s) did they speak at home?
- What family stories were you told?

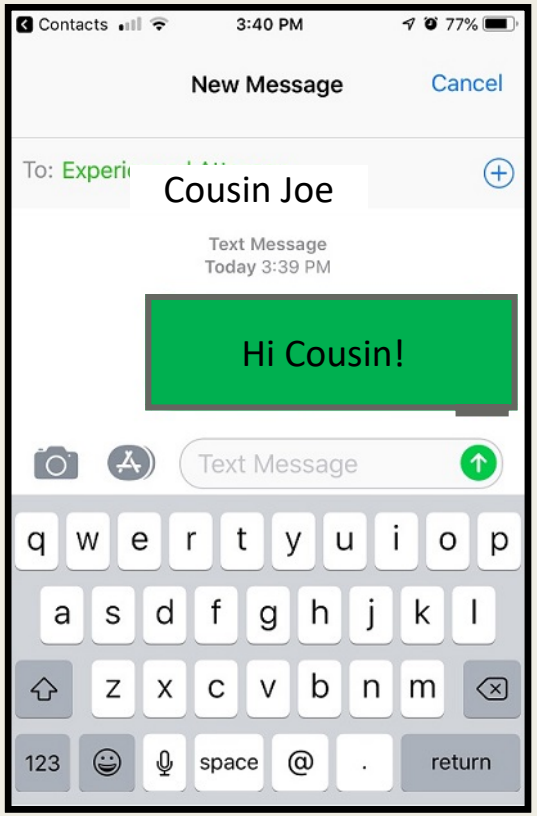

Gather your Documents

- Birth, marriage, death certificates
- Correspondence
- Passports & naturalization certificates
- Military papers
- Artifacts
- Photos

JewishGen Communities Database
The JewishGen Communities Database contains information about 6,000 Jewish communities in Europe, North Africa, and the Middle East.
This database contains each community's name in various languages, and political jurisdictions during different time periods.
In the search results, hover your mouse over a town name for additional information, or click on the icon next to a community's name to see a full page of information — including maps, Jewish population figures, and links to JewishGen resources for that community.

Can you please call my husband, Tuvia. Our phone number is XXX-XXX-XXX. He's stepping out for a while but will be back in about an hour.

His descendants are:
Tuvia Oks (my husband)
Fishel Oks (father from Lutsk)
Yitzhak Oks (grandfather)
Yehoshua Leib Oks (great grandfather)
Shlomo Baruch Oks (great great grandfather)
Avrum Oks (great great grandfather)

Shabsa was most likely Shlomo Baruch's brother Shebsel who married Necha Shkarnik. Another brother Shmuel married Rukhlya Shnaydir. So your Rachel Oks could be a missing daughter we don't yet have in the tree.

I believe my Maternal Great-Grandmother was Rachel Oks, daughter of Shabsa Oks of Lutzk and Krements. Do you have any information on this family?

JewishGen KehilaLinks
JewishGen KehilaLinks (formerly "ShtetLinks") is a project facilitating web pages commemorating the places where Jews have lived. KehilaLinks provides the opportunity for anyone with an interest in a place to create web pages about that community. These web pages may contain information, pictures, databases, and links to other sources providing data about that place.
Kehila קהילה [Hebrew] n. (pl. kehilot קהילות): Jewish Community. Used to refer to a Jewish community, anywhere in the world.
Click on the region below to see a list of KehilaLinks sites in that region.
All places are listed by their modern names in their current countries. Yiddish and other names follow in parentheses.

Don't see your community listed? Learn how to add your own KehilaLinks page.
Click on the toolbar above to take you to a list of cities and towns that are within today's borders of that country or area. Keep in mind that borders have changed through the years, so if you don't see your place listed, check the neighboring countries to see if it might appear within their current borders (e.g.: Smorgon, traditionally associated with Lithuania, is in Belarus today). KehilaLinks continues to grow, so check back often.

Welcome to Ukraine SIG!

We share histories, resources, data, and research tips to help each other research Jewish Genealogy.

We cover the region of nine historical Russian Empire gubernias now mainly in Ukraine but also in Russia.

To learn more about the geographical area we cover, about the work of UKR-SIG and how our website is organized, click "Get Started" on the top menu bar.

Or you can start using the clickable map to get to information about a specific province, district or town.

There's a LOT of information here; we hope you'll enjoy browsing and digging. If you have questions, or want to contribute something of your own, contact us.
